LE I GUNS

You're packin' a standard-issue, six-round service revolver to begin, but there are plenty of opportunities to upgrade your "hardware".

MACHINE GUN

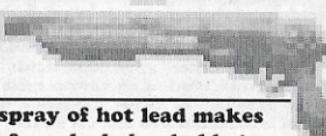

- Hold down the Fire button to unleash a fury of bullets; holds 36 rounds and cannot be reloaded.

RIFLE

- Press the Fire button to let off 3 rounds at a time; holds 12 rounds.

SHOTGUN

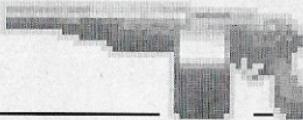

- A spray of hot lead makes up for a bad aim; holds 6 rounds.

MAGNUM

- One single, powerful shot at a time, but it's enough to stop a freight train.

GRENADE GUN

- Holds 8 rounds of pure destructive force and cannot be reloaded.

AUTOMATIC

- Similar to your standard service revolver, but it holds 12 rounds.

LE II GUNS

In the Old West, a lawman without his trusty "Peacemaker" was, well, usually found in a hole six feet under. Sometimes, though, the big guns had to be brought out.

50 CALIBER SHARP

▲ Holds 5 rounds.

RIFLE

▲ This is where the phrase "Long arm of the law" originated. Holds 12 rounds.

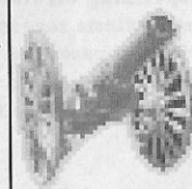

SHOTGUN

▲ Packs enough wallop to drop a bandito at 100 paces. Holds 6 rounds.

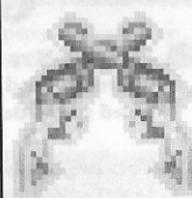

CANNON

► It may not be subtle, but blasting through walls does give you the element of surprise! Holds 8 rounds and can't be reloaded

DOUBLE RIG

► What could be better than having a loaded six-shooter in your hands? That's right, having 2 in your hands.

GATLING GUN

► Hold down the Fire button to lay down a blanket of ammo to drop the outlaws in their tracks. Holds 36 rounds and can't be reloaded.

GAMEPLAY

A player can begin a new game by pressing the start button on the gun or controller. Depending on the game mode selected in the options screen, a stage select screen will be presented on the screen (street mode), or a game will start with the first level of the game (arcade mode)

GAME OBJECTIVES

- Fire the HyperBlaster® (or press the Fire button on the Controller) at enemies, and at any items they throw at you. Remember, you're the good guy—don't hit any innocent bystanders!
- You begin the game with the rank of "Patrolman" (LEI) or "Posse" (LEII). Your rank goes up when you improve your Hit Rate—a percentage of enemies hit per shots fired, minus a penalty if you hit innocent bystanders.
- The game ends when your "lives" run out. If you have Credits remaining, you can use CONTINUE to battle on.
- Defeat the Boss at the end of each stage to clear that stage.

STAGE SELECT

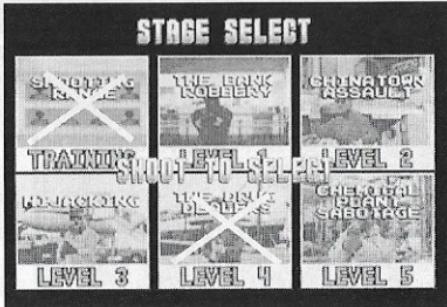

STAGE SELECT

To select a stage, point and shoot the stage you want to play. If you are not using the Hyperblaster® move the cursor over the desired stage and press the "fire" button.

In LE I, once a stage is completed (unless the game is in Arcade Mode) the game will automatically go back to the STAGE SELECT screen. An "x" will appear over the completed stage/s. To continue your game, choose one of the remaining stages. Once you have completed all of the stages the process is repeated.

A stage which has an "x" over it cannot be replayed until all of the stages are completed or you begin a new game.
